Welcome to Paris

Monday 5 Jan

Arrive in Paris, visit Notre-Dame Cathedral and the Latin Quarter, enjoy a welcome dinner, and end the day with a Seine River Cruise at night.

Welcome to Paris

Welcome to Paris, the City of Light, where history, art, and romance await. Upon arrival at the airport, your friendly Tour Manager will greet you, and we'll begin exploring this iconic city full of landmarks, rich history, and vibrant neighborhoods. Our first stop is the Notre-Dame Cathedral, a stunning example of Gothic architecture. Standing for over 850 years, this cathedral is a masterpiece of medieval craftsmanship. Marvel at its soaring spires and intricate stonework that continue to captivate visitors from around the world.

Next, we'll stroll through the historic Latin Quarter, named after the Latin language once spoken by scholars at the Sorbonne University. This lively area is filled with cozy cafés, charming bookshops, and bustling streets, offering a true taste of Parisian life. The Latin Quarter has long been a hub for artists, intellectuals, and writers, with a vibrant atmosphere that brings the city's rich past to life. As evening falls, we'll gather for a welcome dinner in the Latin Quarter. This meal offers a chance to enjoy delicious French cuisine in a charming setting, welcoming you to Paris in the best way possible. After dinner, we'll embark on a Seine River Cruise. As the boat glides along the river, you'll enjoy Paris's most iconic landmarks lit up against the night sky. The Eiffel Tower, Louvre Museum, and Pont Neuf will sparkle, offering breathtaking views of the city.

Day 3

Paris Guided Sightseeing

Tuesday 6 Jan

Guided sightseeing tour of Paris, including iconic landmarks, followed by a free afternoon, an excellent opportunity to discover your favorites.

Paris Guided Sightseeing

After breakfast at the hotel, we will embark on a guided sightseeing tour of Paris, led by our private expert guides who will immerse you in the city's fascinating history and culture. As you explore the world-renowned landmarks of the French capital, you'll learn about their significance and the stories behind them. From the magnificent Arc de Triomphe, standing tall at the end of the Champs-Élysées, to the elegant Place de la Concorde, each stop will offer a glimpse into Paris's vibrant past, where every corner holds a story.

After the tour, you will have free time to explore Paris at your own pace. If you're drawn to world-class museums, you'll have plenty of choices in this cultural capital, home to some of the world's most celebrated masterpieces. For a leisurely experience, consider a stroll along the Seine, discovering the city's iconic bridges and bookstalls, or relax in the beautiful gardens of the Tuileries or Luxembourg. If you're interested in a royal excursion, you can take a short train ride to Versailles to explore the breathtaking palace and gardens on your own. As the evening unfolds, you'll have the freedom to enjoy dinner at a restaurant of your choice, whether indulging in classic French cuisine or discovering a hidden gem in one of Paris's charming districts. The possibilities are endless, allowing you to make the most of your time in this captivating city.

Day 4

Eiffel Tower & Louvre

Wednesday 7 Jan

Ascend the Eiffel Tower in the morning, enjoy a lunch break, explore the Louvre Museum in the afternoon, and have the evening free to enjoy Paris.

The Eiffel Tower & Louvre

Start your day with an unforgettable visit to the Eiffel Tower, where you'll ascend to its summit for panoramic views of Paris that stretch as far as the eye can see. The iconic tower offers a unique perspective of the city's landmarks, and the breathtaking views are sure to be a highlight of your trip. Following lunch, we'll head to the world-famous Louvre Museum for an included entrance, where you'll have the chance to explore its vast collection of art and masterpieces, including the iconic Mona Lisa and Venus de Milo. Whether you're an art enthusiast or a first-time visitor, the Louvre's stunning galleries and rich history are sure to captivate your imagination.

The rest of the afternoon and evening are free for you to enjoy at your own pace. You can wander through the beautiful streets of Paris, perhaps visiting the charming Tuileries Gardens or exploring hidden gems in neighborhoods like Le Marais. For dinner, feel free to choose your own spot from the many fabulous Parisian bistros, or indulge in some leisurely shopping before relaxing in the vibrant atmosphere of the city. The evening is yours to enjoy however you wish!

Day 5

Paris at Leisure

Thursday 8 Jan

Explore Paris at your leisure, with options like the Musée d'Orsay or Luxembourg Gardens, before a guided walk and dinner in the charming Montmartre district.

Paris at Leisure

Today is a free day in Paris to explore at your own pace. You have the freedom to revisit your favorite spots or discover new ones. Perhaps you'll visit the stunning Musée d'Orsay to admire world-class Impressionist art, or take a relaxing walk through the Luxembourg Gardens, one of Paris's most beautiful green spaces. You could also indulge in some shopping in the trendy Le Marais district, or explore the hidden passages and boutiques that give Paris its unique charm. Whether you choose to relax by the Seine, browse the shops along Champs-Élysées, or sip coffee in a cozy café, the day is yours to enjoy as you wish.

In the evening, we'll gather for a special dinner in the enchanting Montmartre district. Your Tour Manager will lead a delightful walk through this historic and artistic neighborhood, guiding you through its narrow streets, past the famous Sacré-Cœur Basilica, and into lively squares where artists still gather to showcase their work. After the walk, we'll sit down for a delicious dinner in a charming local restaurant, where you can savor authentic French cuisine in one of the city's most beloved areas. It's the perfect way to experience the charm and romance of Montmartre as the evening comes to life.

Day 6

The Eternal City

Friday 9 Jan

Fly to Rome and enjoy a walking tour of Piazza Navona, the Pantheon, Trevi Fountain, and the Spanish Steps, followed by dinner in the same area.

The Eternal City

Fly to Rome, the Eternal City. Upon arrival, your Tour Manager will greet you and take you on a walking tour of some of Rome's most iconic landmarks. We'll start with Piazza Navona, one of the most beautiful squares in Rome, where you can admire the stunning Fountain of the Four Rivers by Bernini. The vibrant atmosphere of the square, with its artists and street performers, captures the spirit of Roman life. Next, we'll visit the awe-inspiring Pantheon, a marvel of ancient Roman engineering. This well-preserved temple, now a church, features a breathtaking dome with a central oculus that allows sunlight to pour into the building, creating a mystical ambiance. You'll be fascinated by its perfect proportions and history as one of the greatest surviving works of ancient Rome.

From there, we'll head to the iconic Trevi Fountain, where you can toss a coin into the water to ensure your return to Rome. The grand baroque fountain, with its dramatic statues and cascading water, is one of the most photographed spots in the city. Finally, we'll stroll to the famous Spanish Steps, a grand staircase of 135 steps that leads up to the Trinità dei Monti church. It's a perfect place to sit, people-watch, and take in the lively atmosphere of Piazza di Spagna. At night we'll enjoy a delightful dinner in the area around the Spanish Steps.

Dinner in Rome*4 Star Hotel in Rome

Day 7

Ancient Rome

Saturday 10 Jan

Explore the Colosseum and Roman Forum with a guided tour, followed by a walk to Campo de' Fiori for lunch, with the afternoon and evening free to enjoy Rome at your own pace.

Ancient Rome

Today, we'll explore the heart of ancient Rome with a guided tour of two iconic landmarks: the Colosseum and the Roman Forum. Your expert guide will take you through the Colosseum, a colossal amphitheater built in 70-80 AD, once hosting gladiatorial combat, animal hunts, and mock naval battles. As you stand in the arena, imagine the crowds that once filled its seats and learn about the events that took place within its walls. The Colosseum is a powerful symbol of Roman engineering and brutal entertainment.

Next, we'll visit the Roman Forum, the center of political, religious, and social life in ancient Rome. Walk through the ruins of temples, basilicas, and monuments, including the Temple of Julius Caesar, dedicated to the deified leader after his assassination in 44 BC, and the Senate House, where decisions shaping Rome's future were made. The Forum offers a window into the grandeur of Roman civilization.

After exploring these ancient sites, we'll enjoy a leisurely Tour Manager-led walk to Campo de' Fiori, a vibrant market square filled with cafes and flower stalls. Here, you can enjoy lunch at a quaint restaurant before enjoying a free afternoon and evening to explore at your own pace.

Day 8

Rome Discovery

Sunday 11 Jan

A day to explore on your own and tick off your favorites. Why not a visit to St. Peter's Basilica, with a free afternoon and evening in Trastevere.

Rome Discovery

Today is yours to discover Rome at your own pace, with endless possibilities to immerse yourself in the city's rich history, art, and culture. A must-visit is the Vatican, home to one of the world's greatest art collections. At the Vatican Museums, you can explore galleries filled with masterpieces by Michelangelo, Raphael, and Leonardo da Vinci. A key highlight is the Sistine Chapel, where Michelangelo's breathtaking frescoes, including the Creation of Adam and the Last Judgment, create an awe-inspiring experience. Be sure to visit St. Peter's Basilica, the largest church in the world, where you can admire Michelangelo's Pietà, Bernini's magnificent altar, and climb to the dome for a stunning panoramic view of Rome. Beyond the Vatican, consider exploring the charming neighborhood of Monti, a hidden gem filled with vintage boutiques and cafés. Alternatively, enjoy a leisurely walk through Villa Borghese Gardens, a peaceful oasis with beautiful fountains, sculptures, and picturesque views. For art lovers, the Borghese Gallery offers an exceptional collection of Bernini, Caravaggio, and other masterpieces. Another great option is a visit to the Castel Sant'Angelo, a historic fortress with remarkable views of the city. In the evening, your Tour Manager will guide the group to the vibrant Trastevere district, where you can enjoy the lively atmosphere and charming trattorias. You'll have free time to enjoy a delicious dinner at one of the local eateries.

Individual Dinner*4 Star Hotel in Rome

Day 9

Acropolis & Plaka

Monday 12 Jan

Arrive in Athens for a guided sightseeing tour, including the ancient Acropolis and the charming Plaka neighborhood, with the evening free to explore.

Acropolis & Plaka

Fly to Athens, the cradle of Western civilization, where we'll embark on a guided tour to explore the city's iconic landmarks. We'll start with a visit to the Olympic Stadium, site of the first modern Olympic Games in 1896, where its impressive marble architecture highlights Greece's sporting legacy. Next, we'll stroll through Plaka, the charming neighborhood at the foot of the Acropolis, with its narrow streets and traditional houses blending ancient history with modern life.

We'll then visit Syntagma Square, the heart of Athens, where you'll witness the ceremonial changing of the guard by the Evzones, the presidential guards. Finally, we'll head to the world-renowned Acropolis, where you can explore the Parthenon, the Temple of Athena Nike, and the Erechtheion, offering a glimpse into the glory of ancient Athens. The afternoon and evening are free for you to explore at your leisure. You can visit more historic sites, take a walk through the city's streets, or relax at a tavern in Plaka.

Individual Dinner*4 Star Hotel in Athens

Day 10

Excursion to Delphi

Tuesday 13 Jan

Excursion to the ancient Delphi Archaeological Park, learning about the Oracle of Delphi, followed by a farewell dinner with traditional Greek dance and music back in Plaka, Athens

Excursion to Delphi

Today, embark on an unforgettable excursion to Delphi, one of the most significant archaeological sites in Greece, located about two hours from Athens in a stunning mountain setting. As you arrive at the Delphi Archaeological Park, your local guide will lead you through this ancient site, once considered the center of the world by the ancient Greeks. Delphi was home to the Oracle of Delphi, where the high priestess, known as the Pythia, delivered prophecies believed to be inspired by the god Apollo.

You'll explore the fascinating ruins of the Temple of Apollo, the Theatre, and the Stadium, all set against the dramatic backdrop of the Parnassus Mountains. The peaceful surroundings and rich history make Delphi a truly captivating place, offering insight into the spiritual and cultural significance of the site to the ancient Greeks.

After returning to Athens, we'll gather for a farewell dinner, where you'll enjoy traditional Greek cuisine while being entertained by Greek dance and music. The lively performances and vibrant atmosphere will provide the perfect end to your memorable journey, allowing you to celebrate the connections you've made and the experiences you've had throughout your travels. It's a fitting way to say goodbye to Greece and reflect on the rich history and culture you've encountered.
