Day 3

Dover Castle

Sunday 31 May

After breakfast, visit Dover Castle to explore its medieval history, stunning battlements, and panoramic English Channel views.

Dover Castle

After a hearty and satisfying breakfast, board your comfortable coach and set off on a scenic journey to the magnificent Dover Castle, a fortress with an extraordinary history spanning over 2,000 years. Perched dramatically on the iconic White Cliffs of Dover, this formidable stronghold has stood as a symbol of defense and power since Roman times. Once a grand medieval palace and residence of King Henry II, Dover Castle offers a captivating glimpse into the past, with costumed characters bringing history to life through engaging stories of royal ambition, courtly intrigue, and fierce battles.

Step inside the majestic Great Tower, where the lavishly recreated interiors transport you back to the 12th century, showcasing the splendor of medieval life. Ascend to the rooftop for breathtaking panoramic views of the English Channel, where—on a clear day—you may even catch a glimpse of France on the horizon. Stroll through the sprawling 80-acre castle grounds, following the ancient battlements of what is often hailed as England's greatest fortress.

As you make your way back to London, time permitting, enjoy a brief but enriching stop in historic Greenwich. This picturesque riverside district is home to the Prime Meridian, marking the world's division between east and west. We return to the capital for dinner at night.

Day 4

Windsor & London Sightseeing

Monday 1 Jun

Enjoy a guided visit to Windsor Castle, exploring its rich royal history, before returning to London for a panoramic city sightseeing tour of its most iconic landmarks.

Windsor Castle & London

Begin your day with a guided visit to the magnificent Windsor Castle, the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world, serving as an official residence of the British monarch for nearly 1,000 years. Step inside this grand royal retreat to admire the opulent Grand Vestibule, showcasing an impressive collection of arms and armor, alongside dazzling chandeliers and ornate furnishings. Marvel at the exquisite china used in State Banquets, as well as an extraordinary array of historic treasures, including priceless paintings by masters like Rembrandt and Rubens.

Within the castle grounds, explore the iconic St. George's Chapel, an architectural masterpiece of Gothic design. This hallowed site, famous for hosting the wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle, is also the final resting place of King Henry VIII and Queen Elizabeth II, adding a profound sense of history to your visit.

Upon returning to London, embark on a guided bus tour led by our expert guide, offering fascinating insights into the city's most famous landmarks. Pass by Buckingham Palace, the Houses of Parliament, and the majestic Tower Bridge while learning about London's rich and storied past. In the evening, enjoy a delicious early dinner, at 5PM, leaving plenty of time for optional activities at night.

Day 5

Globe Theatre

Tuesday 2 Jun

Tour the iconic Globe Theatre in the morning, enjoy free time in the afternoon with an early dinner before exploring the theatre scene on your own.

Globe Theatre

Start your morning with a captivating guided tour of the iconic Globe Theatre, a stunning reconstruction of the original Elizabethan playhouse where William Shakespeare's legendary works were performed before enthralled audiences. Nestled along the scenic South Bank of the River Thames, this architectural marvel transports you back to the golden age of drama, offering fascinating insights into Shakespeare's world, theatrical traditions, and the lively atmosphere of 16th-century performances. Stand in the open-air yard where groundlings once gathered, admire the intricate timber-framed design, and gain a deeper appreciation for the enduring influence of the Bard's masterpieces.

In the afternoon, enjoy free time to explore London your way, with several curated activity options led by a chaperone. Whether you choose to visit the bustling markets of Camden, explore the masterpieces of the National Gallery, or stroll through the charming streets of Notting Hill, the city offers endless possibilities to suit your interests.

Later, gather for an early dinner, at 5PM, leaving plenty of time for a memorable evening in London. With your night free to experience the city's vibrant theatre scene at your leisure.

Day 6

Stonehenge & Oxford

Wednesday 3 Jun

Explore the ancient Stonehenge, dating back over 5,000 years, then visit Oxford University, home to over 70 Nobel Laureates, before returning to London for the evening.

Stonehenge & Oxford

We begin the day with a scenic drive from London to the world-famous Stonehenge, one of the most iconic and enigmatic prehistoric sites in the world. This ancient stone circle, believed to have been constructed around 5,000 years ago, continues to captivate historians and archaeologists with its mysterious origins and purpose. Some theories suggest it served as a ceremonial site, a burial ground, or even an early astronomical observatory aligned with the movements of the sun. As you walk around the towering stones, take in the sheer scale of this engineering marvel and imagine the efforts required to transport and position these massive monoliths without modern tools.

After exploring this awe-inspiring monument, we journey on to the historic city of Oxford, home to one of the world's most prestigious universities, Oxford University, which has shaped generations of scholars, including more than 70 Nobel Laureates and countless world leaders. Stroll through the city's picturesque streets lined with honey-colored buildings, passing by historic landmarks. We'll visit one of Oxford's renowned colleges, where students have studied for over 800 years, and admire its breathtaking architecture. As the day winds down, enjoy a delightful dinner in Oxford before returning to London in the evening.

Day 7

Tower of London

Thursday 4 Jun

Visit the Tower of London to see the Crown Jewels, Traitor's Gate, and ravens, then enjoy a steak and fries lunch at St. Katharine's Dock, with the afternoon free for leisure.

Tower of London

This morning, we head to the iconic Tower of London, a UNESCO World Heritage site with a rich and storied past as a royal palace, formidable fortress, and notorious prison. Standing for nearly 1,000 years, this historic landmark has witnessed countless dramatic events, from the imprisonment of famous figures to royal executions. As you explore its ancient walls, you'll have the chance to marvel at the dazzling Crown Jewels, a breathtaking collection of regalia still used in modern coronations, including the legendary Koh-i-Noor diamond and the Imperial State Crown.

Watch the famous Beefeaters (Yeoman Warders) in their distinctive red and gold uniforms as they patrol the grounds, sharing tales of treachery, betrayal, and royal intrigue. Step through the infamous Traitor's Gate, where prisoners such as Anne Boleyn, Guy Fawkes, and Sir Thomas More were brought into the fortress under guard, many never to leave again. Keep an eye out for the ravens that inhabit the Tower—according to legend, if these birds ever leave, the kingdom will fall, though today, nine carefully watched ravens ensure the monarchy's safety.

After our visit, we take a short walk to the charming St. Katharine's Dock, a hidden gem by the River Thames, where we'll enjoy a delicious included lunch, a full-course meal. The afternoon and evening are yours to enjoy at your leisure, with optional activities guided by your Group Leader and chaperones.
