Day 5

Sightseeing Vienna

Tour Vienna with a guided visit to Schönbrunn Palace, then enjoy an evening at Prater Park.

Sightseeing Vienna

Set out on a guided sightseeing tour of Vienna, where history and grandeur come together in perfect harmony. A highlight of the day is a guided visit to Schönbrunn Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the former summer residence of the Habsburg rulers. As you walk through its elegant halls and manicured grounds, learn about the palace's rich history and its name, Schönbrunn, meaning "beautiful spring," a nod to the natural spring that once flowed here.

The late afternoon and evening are at your leisure. Explore at your own pace, or join your Tour Manager for a lively and fun evening at Prater, one of the world's oldest amusement parks, dating back to 1766. Whether you're strolling through the park or soaking in its nostalgic charm, this visit offers a delightful contrast to the day's historical sights. Enjoy your evening in Vienna, if not at Prater, perhaps at the opera?
