Day 4

Normandy D-Day

Travel to Normandy to explore Pointe du Hoc, Omaha Beach, Arromanches, and the American Cemetery, then return for a Seine River cruise.

Normandy D-Day

Leave behind the energy of Paris for a day trip to Normandy, a region rich in history and remembrance. Travel west to explore some of the most iconic landmarks of World War II. Begin at Pointe du Hoc, where dramatic cliffs still bear witness to the events of D-Day. Continue to Omaha Beach, one of the most significant landing sites, and reflect at the American Cemetery, a solemn tribute to the soldiers who fought and fell.

Stop in Arromanches to see the remains of the "Port Winston" Harbor, a remarkable engineering feat that supported the Allied invasion. After a full day of discovery, return to Paris and unwind with a scenic Seine Dinner cruise. As you float past illuminated monuments and bridges, experience the City of Light from a peaceful new vantage point, ending the day with quiet reflection and inspiration.

Day 6

Avignon

Travel by high-speed train to Avignon, visit the Palais des Papes, then enjoy a walking tour and dinner among the charming streets of the old city.

Avignon

Enjoy a smooth and scenic journey through the heart of France aboard the high-speed TGV train as you travel south to Avignon. Watch the countryside unfold through your window, transitioning from urban skylines to rolling fields and historic towns. Once in Avignon, begin your afternoon with a visit to the Palais des Papes, a striking fortress that once served as the residence of medieval popes and now stands as a UNESCO World Heritage site.

After exploring the grandeur of the palace, reconnect with your Tour Manager for a guided walking tour through Avignon's old city. Wander through narrow streets lined with local shops, lively squares full of atmosphere, and sections of the city's original medieval walls. The charm of Avignon reveals itself with each step. As evening falls, enjoy a relaxed dinner, soaking in the ambiance of this timeless and enchanting Provençal town.

Day 7

Provance Galore

Explore Pont du Gard, Les Baux-de-Provence, and Nîmes, with entry to the Arènes de Nîmes, then return to Avignon for dinner.

Provance Galore

Set out to explore the scenic and historic treasures of Provence on a full-day adventure. Begin with a visit to the Pont du Gard, a remarkably preserved Roman aqueduct that stands as a testament to ancient engineering. Continue to Les Baux-de-Provence, a hilltop village offering stunning views and a unique atmosphere shaped by centuries of history and tradition.

In the afternoon, arrive in the city of Nîmes, known for its Roman roots and lively cultural scene. Use your included entry to step inside the Arènes de Nîmes, an impressive amphitheater dating back to 70 AD, which later served as a bullring from 1863. As the day comes to a close, return to Avignon for a well-earned dinner. Share reflections on the fascinating sites and experiences that defined your day in the heart of Provence.

Day 8

Journey to Nice

Arrive in sunlit Nice, stroll through the Old Town and along the beach on a guided tour, then enjoy a three-course dinner by the sea.

Journey to Nice

Travel south to the dazzling city of Nice, where the French Riviera welcomes you with sun, sea, and timeless charm. Nestled between the Alps and the Mediterranean, Nice is the cultural and culinary heart of the Côte d'Azur. Begin your visit with a guided walking tour led by your Tour Manager, who will introduce you to the Old Town's narrow lanes, colorful façades, and lively markets.

Stroll along the beachfront promenade, where the sea sparkles and the atmosphere is vibrant with coastal energy. The mix of Italian and French influences gives the city a distinct character, making it a delight to explore. In the evening, sit down to a delicious three-course dinner and savor the Mediterranean flavors that make this region famous. As the sun sets over the Riviera, enjoy the relaxed beauty and charm of Nice, the perfect setting to unwind and reflect.
