Day 2

Welcome to London

Arrive in London and explore on foot with your Tour Manager. See London Bridge, St. Paul's, Hyde Park, and enjoy a welcome dinner.

Welcome to London

Arrive in London, where your Tour Manager will be waiting to welcome you. As one of the world's great cultural crossroads, London captivates with its layered history and dynamic energy. During your Tour Manager walking tour, you'll take in iconic sights including London Bridge and the historic Houses of Parliament. The tour also offers a chance to admire the stunning Baroque architecture of St. Paul's Cathedral, a masterpiece by Sir Christopher Wren.

As you continue exploring central London, you'll pass through the buzzing atmosphere of Piccadilly Circus and enjoy the calm, leafy expanses of Hyde Park—an oasis in the middle of the metropolis. If the timing is right, you may even catch the ceremonial Changing of the Guard. Along the River Thames, glimpses of Big Ben mark one of the city's most photographed backdrops. In the evening, gather with your group for a well-deserved welcome dinner.

Day 3

London Sightseeing

See the Buckingham Palace, the Tower of London, Westminster Abbey, and Covent Garden. Enjoy free time in the afternoon.

London Sightseeing

Start your day with a guided sightseeing tour of London led by a certified Blue Badge guide, offering expert insights into some of the city's most celebrated landmarks. You'll see the Buckingham Palace, admire the imposing Tower of London, and soak up the lively atmosphere of Covent Garden. The tour continues with a stop at Westminster Abbey, a masterpiece of Gothic architecture, and a view of the Shard, the tallest building in the UK, showcasing London's blend of history and modernity.

In the afternoon, enjoy free time to explore London at your own pace. Whether you're drawn to world-class museums like the British Museum or the National Gallery, or prefer a scenic walk along the River Thames with sights like the London Eye and South Bank, the city offers something for every interest. You could also browse the stylish boutiques and cafés of the West End or wander the colorful streets of Notting Hill.

Day 4

Leisurely London

Spend the day at your leisure and choice, see the Tower of London, ride the London Eye, shop in Soho, or stroll through Kew Gardens or the V&A Museum.

Leisurely London

Make the most of your final full day in London by exploring the city's rich variety of attractions at your leisure. You might begin with a visit to the historic Tower of London, where centuries of intrigue come to life and the Crown Jewels gleam with royal history. For a classic British experience, stop by Harrods and treat yourself to a traditional cream tea in the elegant surroundings of its tea room. If you're in the mood for panoramic views, a ride on the London Eye offers a stunning perspective of the city's skyline.

The day invites you to experience London in a way that suits your interests. Wander through the vibrant streets of Soho, known for its independent shops and diverse food scene, or take in the beauty of the Victoria and Albert Museum's renowned art and design collections. For a more tranquil experience, enjoy a peaceful stroll through the lush landscapes of Kew Gardens.
