Day 2

Welcome to Amsterdam

Arrive in Amsterdam, explore the center with its unique tower houses, and enjoy a warm welcome dinner together tonight.

Welcome to Amsterdam

Arrive in Amsterdam where your Tour Manager greets you and introduces you to this vibrant city. After checking into your centrally located hotel, head out for a guided orientation walk through the historic center. Admire the charm of narrow canals, discover bustling Dam Square, and pass iconic gabled houses that have stood for centuries. You'll also have some free time in the afternoon to explore at your own pace—whether browsing shops, visiting a café, or simply enjoying the city's relaxed pace.

This evening, come together for a welcome dinner in a local restaurant. Savor Dutch cuisine while sharing first impressions with your travel companions. Afterward, you may wish to enjoy a relaxed canal-side walk or sip a drink in a cozy brown café. Whether you choose to keep exploring or unwind, your first night in Amsterdam offers the perfect introduction to this cosmopolitan city.

Day 3

Amsterdam Canals

Take a guided cruise on Amsterdam's UNESCO Heritage canals and enjoy the second part of the day at your leisure.

Amsterdam Canals

Your day begins with a memorable canal cruise, offering a perfect introduction to Amsterdam's unique character. Pass through the city's historic waterways, lined with 17th-century merchant houses, and admire the blend of old and new that has earned UNESCO recognition. Along the way, enjoy commentary about Amsterdam's trading legacy, its multicultural spirit, and its enduring charm.

The afternoon and evening are yours to enjoy freely. Art lovers might choose to explore world-class museums like the Van Gogh or Rijksmuseum, while others may stroll through Jordaan's boutique streets or unwind in Vondelpark. As night falls, consider dining at a waterside restaurant, sampling Dutch pancakes, or experiencing the city's lively nightlife. Your Tour Manager will share tips for activities to suit every taste, allowing you to tailor your experience to your own style.

Day 4

Historical Amsterdam

Visit the famous Anne Frank Museum and enjoy a free evening on your last day in Amsterdam.

Historical Amsterdam

This morning includes a visit to the Anne Frank House, one of Amsterdam's most poignant landmarks. Step inside the Secret Annex and reflect on the courage, hope, and tragedy that marked Anne's story. The museum's exhibits provide a powerful insight into life under occupation and the enduring importance of tolerance and remembrance.

Afterwards, the afternoon and evening are yours to enjoy freely. Return to favorite spots, browse for unique souvenirs, or linger in a café watching daily life unfold. Art enthusiasts may wish to revisit museums, while others might prefer a peaceful canal walk. As night falls, you might enjoy dinner in a lively square, sip Dutch beer in a cozy pub, or simply take in the twinkling lights from a bridge. The flexibility allows you to shape your evening according to your interests.

Day 5

Ghent Charm

Travel to Ghent, enjoy a guided walk and chocolate tasting, visit the Gravensteen Castle, and enjoy a group dinner.

Ghent Charm

Leave Amsterdam and travel south to Belgium, arriving in the enchanting city of Ghent. This medieval town delights with cobbled lanes, picturesque canals, and striking architecture. Begin with a guided walk led by your Tour Manager, who introduces you to local landmarks, stories, and the vibrant energy of the city. Pause for a Belgian chocolate-tasting experience, savoring flavors that reflect centuries of craftsmanship.

The afternoon includes a visit to Gravensteen Castle, a medieval fortress with towers, ramparts, and panoramic views of Ghent's rooftops. Inside, displays of armor and historical exhibits reveal the city's turbulent past. In the evening, gather for dinner in a cozy restaurant, enjoying Belgian dishes with your group. Share the day's highlights and look forward to tomorrow's journey, enriched by food, history, and the warm spirit of Ghent.

Day 6

Bruges Day Trip

Spend the day in the picturesque town of Bruges, then return to Ghent for a relaxing evening at your leisure.

Bruges Day Trip

Set out for a full-day trip to Bruges, often regarded as Belgium's most picturesque city. With its lace shops, historic squares, and winding canals, the city offers an enchanting glimpse into medieval life. Wander the cobbled streets, admire the Church of Our Lady, or simply relax on a canal-side terrace with a coffee or Belgian beer. Your Tour Manager provides orientation and tips before giving you time to enjoy the city at your own pace.

Return to Ghent by late afternoon, where the evening is yours to enjoy. Perhaps dine in a canal-side bistro, sip a local brew in a centuries-old tavern, or take a quiet stroll through the illuminated streets. Ghent's relaxed atmosphere makes for a charming evening, and the flexibility allows you to choose how to close the day.

Day 7

Parisian Streets

Travel to Paris, explore Notre Dame, Île de la Cité, and the Latin Quarter; enjoy a free evening to discover more of Paris.

Parisian Streets

Travel aboard a high-speed train and arrive in Paris around midday. After settling into your hotel, set off with your Tour Manager for an afternoon of discovery. Visit the legendary Notre Dame Cathedral, explore the historic Île de la Cité, and wander through the Latin Quarter, where lively streets reveal the energy of Parisian student life and centuries of history. Cafés, bookshops, and hidden squares provide an inviting first glimpse of the city.

The evening is free for you to enjoy Paris in your own style. You might choose to dine al fresco in a charming neighborhood, sip wine in a café, or simply stroll along the Seine to watch the city sparkle by night. Whether you prefer a quiet evening or a vibrant atmosphere, this first night in Paris offers flexibility and inspiration to start your experience in the French capital.

Day 8

Versailles & Montmartre

Start the day with a guided tour of Paris, visit Versailles, and enjoy an evening at leisure in Montmartre, the artistic heart of Paris.

Versailles & Montmartre

Start the day with a panoramic guided tour, highlighting Paris's most beloved landmarks. From the Arc de Triomphe to the boulevards of central Paris, you'll gain a deeper understanding of the city's character and elegance. In the afternoon, venture to the Palace of Versailles, where gilded halls and sprawling gardens reflect the height of French opulence. Stroll through the palace or relax in the gardens, imagining life at the royal court.

Back in Paris, head to Montmartre to discover its bohemian atmosphere and artistic heritage. Walk through cobbled lanes, visit the steps of Sacré-Cœur, or browse artist stalls in lively squares. The evening is at leisure: you may dine at a bistro with Eiffel Tower views, enjoy a glass of wine on a terrace, or simply take in the charm of Montmartre at night. The neighborhood's timeless atmosphere makes for a memorable evening.
