Day 3

Edinburgh Sightseeing

Today we join our expert local guide for a sightseeing tour including entrance to Edinburgh Castle and much more!

Edinburgh Sightseeing

Today we enjoy a guided sightseeing and an entrance to Edinburgh Castle, one of the oldest fortified places in Europe. With an extensive history as a home to the royals, an infamous prison and a medieval fortress, its walls hold many stories~ and just as many secrets. There are numerous stories about ghosts that roam the halls of the former home of Mary, Queen of Scots.

From the top of the hill, enjoy a panoramic view of the city. Visit The National Museum of Scotland and then spend your day exploring Edinburgh, ascending Castle Hill, and you, too, will walk in the footsteps of royalty!

Day 4

Trossachs National Park

Full-day excursion to Trossachs National Park and the Scottish Highland. Entrance to Stirling Castle.

Trossachs National Park

After breakfast, you're off on a full-day excursion to Trossachs National Park and the Scottish Highlands. This area is extremely popular with travelers and those who enjoy outdoor adventuring. In fact, it was one of the first areas in Scotland to become a recognized tourist attraction, due to its prime location and gorgeous scenery.

See the Wallace Monument, Stirling's famous landmark that rises above the fields where William Wallace led his troops to victory at The Battle of Stirling Bridge, and thus, became Scotland's national hero. Then enjoy an entrance to Stirling Castle, birthplace of Mary, Queen of Scots and James VI and I, before heading south again via the Kelpies. In the evening, choose your own activity: sample a whisky flight, catch live folk music, or enjoy a quiet walk through the city.

Day 7

Dover & Canterbury

Day trip to Dover Castle is a medieval palace and was home to Henry II. Visit Canterbury Cathedral as you return to London.

Excursion to Dover

Today, we head to Dover Castle, where over 2,000 years of history await. Dover Castle, a formidable medieval fortress, was once home to King Henry II and many other notable figures, some of whom you may even “meet” as costumed characters bring the past to life. Climb to the rooftop of the Great Tower for sweeping panoramic views of the English Channel.

Explore over 80 acres of castle grounds, walking the ancient battlements of what is often hailed as England’s greatest fortress. Afterward, journey to the historic city of Canterbury for a visit to its world-renowned cathedral. One of the oldest and most significant Christian sites in England, this UNESCO World Heritage Site is famed for its stunning Gothic architecture and magnificent stained glass windows. Return to London with the evening open. Visit a historic pub, a modern brasserie, or take a night stroll through lit squares and along the Thames.

Day 8

Tower of London

Get up close to the crown jewels and the “beefeaters” walking the grounds of the Tower of London. We end with the London Eye and a farewell dinner.

Tower of London

This morning, it's off to the Tower of London, where you'll have the chance to explore this iconic fortress, royal palace, and once-infamous prison. Marvel at the dazzling Crown Jewels and observe the ceremonial guards known as the “Beefeaters,”. In the afternoon, enjoy some free time to explore more of London at your own pace, with several optional excursions available alongside a chaperone. Whether you're browsing shops or relaxing at a café, it's the perfect opportunity to soak in London's charm one last time.

As the day winds down, rejoin the group for one final, unforgettable experience: a ride on the London Eye. Watch the city unfold beneath you as the sun sets, offering stunning panoramic views and a moment of reflection on your incredible journey. Rejoin the group for a festive farewell dinner that celebrates shared discoveries and new friendships. Savor an unhurried meal and raise a glass to Scotland's charm and London's verve.
