Day 2

Reykjavik Highlights

Arrive in Iceland, explore Reykjavik's key sights on foot, and enjoy a warm welcome dinner to start your adventure.

Reykjavik Highlights

Arrive in Iceland and meet your Tour Manager, who will introduce you to the Land of Fire and Ice. After settling in, set out for an introductory walking tour of Reykjavik, Iceland's colorful and compact capital. Stroll through its lively streets lined with cafés and design boutiques, and see the city's main landmarks—Hallgrímskirkja Church, Harpa Concert Hall, and the old harbor—each offering a glimpse into Iceland's unique blend of tradition and modern creativity.

As evening falls, gather for a welcome dinner featuring Icelandic specialties and warm hospitality. It's the perfect chance to get to know your fellow travelers and exchange first impressions while sampling local cuisine. After dinner, enjoy a short evening walk or simply relax and take in the crisp Nordic air. Your Icelandic journey begins with culture, flavor, and camaraderie in this friendly northern capital.

Day 3

The Golden Circle

Witness Iceland's geological wonders on the Golden Circle: Thingvellir, Geysir, and the mighty Gullfoss waterfall.

The Golden Circle

Embark on a scenic exploration of Iceland's Golden Circle, home to the country's most iconic natural landmarks. Begin at Thingvellir National Park, where the meeting of two continents has shaped a dramatic landscape of cliffs and valleys. Then continue to the Geysir hot spring area to watch Strokkur erupt, sending boiling water high into the crisp air—a mesmerizing display of geothermal power.

Your final stop is the spectacular Gullfoss, known as the "Golden Waterfall," where water from the Langjökull glacier plunges into a canyon surrounded by mist and mossy rock. Capture the moment and feel the raw force of Icelandic nature. The evening is yours in the coastal town of Vik—perhaps enjoy local seafood at a cozy restaurant, take a seaside walk, or relax at your hotel. After a day filled with natural beauty and movement, unwind amid the peaceful sounds of the Atlantic coast.

Day 4

Glacier Lagoon & Ice Beach

Marvel at floating icebergs, stroll the Ice Beach, and hike a glacier in Skaftafell for an unforgettable Icelandic adventure.

Glacier Lagoon & Ice Beach

Begin your day at Jökulsárlón Glacier Lagoon, one of Iceland's most spectacular natural wonders. Gaze across the lagoon where icebergs, freshly calved from the nearby glacier, float serenely before drifting toward the sea. Continue to the striking "Ice Beach," where glistening pieces of ice rest on black volcanic sand—creating a breathtaking contrast of color and light that's a photographer's dream.

Next, journey to Skaftafell Nature Reserve for a two-hour guided glacier hike. Outfitted with crampons and supported by an expert guide, you'll walk across the frozen landscape, witnessing deep crevasses and striking ice formations. It's an accessible yet awe-inspiring adventure that connects you directly to Iceland's glacial world. Return to Vik in the evening, where the night is yours. Enjoy a cozy dinner at a local bistro, unwind at your hotel, or simply admire the serenity of Iceland's southern coast.

Day 5

South Coast Wonders

Explore Vik, black sand beaches, volcano views, waterfalls, and enjoy dinner before searching for the Northern Lights.

South Coast Wonders

Begin your day in the coastal town of Vik, where you can browse shops for traditional Icelandic wool products or take a peaceful walk to the hilltop church for panoramic views. Continue to the famous black sand beach, where striking basalt columns rise dramatically from the sea—one of Iceland's most photographed natural sights. Traveling west, enjoy views of the Hekla volcano before reaching Skógafoss, a magnificent waterfall that thunders down from glacial heights.

Next, visit Seljalandsfoss, a rare waterfall you can actually walk behind for a unique view of cascading water. Your final stop is the Lava Center, where an engaging film explains Iceland's volcanic history before you gather for a hearty dinner. Tonight, settle into a countryside lodge far from city lights. If skies are clear, step outside and look up—the mesmerizing Aurora Borealis may dance above, painting the night with color.

Day 6

Lava Tunnels & Blue Lagoon

Explore an ancient lava tunnel, unwind at the Blue Lagoon, and end the day with free time to enjoy Reykjavik.

Lava Tunnels & Blue Lagoon

This morning brings an underground adventure for a guided lava tunnel tour. With a specialized guide, step into a natural wonder shaped by ancient volcanic activity. Walk through the illuminated cave corridors as you learn about Iceland's fiery geological history and the powerful forces that continue to shape the island today.

Afterward, head to the iconic Blue Lagoon for a relaxing soak in its milky-blue geothermal waters. Treat your skin with a natural silica clay mask while surrounded by steam rising from black lava fields—a quintessential Icelandic experience. The rest of the day is yours to enjoy at leisure back in Reykjavik. Sample local seafood, or take an evening stroll along the harbor as the northern sky glows above. The combination of exploration and tranquility makes for a perfect day in Iceland.

Day 7

Reykjavik & Farewell

Enjoy a free day or join an optional whale safari before reuniting for a festive farewell dinner in Reykjavik.

Reykjavik & Farewell

Spend your final full day in Iceland as you wish. You might choose to join an optional whale safari, sailing from Reykjavik's harbor into Faxaflói Bay in search of minke and humpback whales, dolphins, and seabirds. It's an unforgettable experience that brings you close to Iceland's marine life and dramatic coastal scenery. Alternatively, enjoy a free day to explore the capital at your own pace—perhaps visiting the National Museum, the Reykjavik Art Museum, or the Perlan observation dome for sweeping city views.

As evening falls, gather one last time for a farewell dinner. Savor delicious Icelandic cuisine and toast to the memories created over the past week—glaciers, geysers, waterfalls, and the friendships formed along the way. Reflect on how much you've seen and learned in this land of contrasts before saying a heartfelt "bless bless" to Iceland, carrying its beauty and spirit home with you.
