Day 5

Tuscan Hills

Explore Siena's medieval charm and Duomo, then travel to Florence for an evening of good food and Renaissance atmosphere.

Tuscan Hills

After breakfast, journey into the picturesque Italian countryside, beginning in Siena, a charming town nestled among the rolling Tuscan hills. Enjoy some free time to explore its cobbled streets and soak in the medieval atmosphere. Join your Tour Manager for a scenic walk to the famous Piazza del Campo, known for its unique shell shape and the historic Palio horse race. Don't miss the chance to admire the striking marble facade of the Duomo di Siena, a true architectural gem.

In the afternoon, continue onward to Florence, widely regarded as the birthplace of the Renaissance. Once there, settle into your hotel and take a moment to relax after a day filled with rich history and stunning landscapes. The evening brings a special treat as you gather with your group for a delightful Florentine dinner, sharing stories and savoring local flavors in one of Italy's most culturally vibrant cities.

Day 6

Discover Florence

Tour Florence's Duomo and Ponte Vecchio, enjoy museum time in the afternoon, and an evening at your own pace.

Discover Florence

Enjoy a guided tour of Florence, the birthplace of the Renaissance, led by an expert guide who brings the city's rich artistic and cultural history to life. Begin at the iconic Duomo, where Brunelleschi's magnificent dome dominates the skyline and inspires awe in all who see it. Continue your walk through Florence's charming streets to the picturesque Ponte Vecchio, a medieval bridge lined with quaint shops and offering lovely views over the Arno River.

In the afternoon, enjoy free time to explore at your own pace—perhaps by visiting one of the city's world-famous museums or simply soaking in the atmosphere of its lively piazzas and cafes. Whether you choose to seek out masterpieces or wander hidden alleys, Florence offers endless inspiration. In the evening, consider making your way to Piazzale Michelangelo for a perfect sunset over Florence, a perfect way to wrap up a day filled with art, architecture, and unforgettable beauty.

Day 7

Pisa & Paris

Visit Pisa's Leaning Tower and Square of Miracles, then fly to Paris and enjoy a 3-course dinner; end the day with a Seine River Cruise.

Pisa & Paris

The evening offers a warm welcome to your new surroundings. Begin your journey from Italy to France with a memorable stop in Pisa, where you'll enjoy one last taste of Italian culture and history. Visit the stunning Square of Miracles, a UNESCO World Heritage site home to the world-famous Leaning Tower of Pisa. Take your time to admire this architectural marvel, along with the beautifully detailed Baptistery and Cathedral that share the square. Don't forget to capture a few iconic photos before saying farewell to Italy.

After your visit, head to the airport and board your flight to Paris, the enchanting City of Lights. Upon arrival, take in the elegant charm of the French capital as you settle into your hotel. As evening approaches, gather with your group for a delicious dinner, setting the tone for a wonderful evening. Cap off the day with a magical Seine River cruise, gliding past Paris's shimmering monuments and experiencing the city's charm under the glow of evening lights.
