Between Africa and Europe

Experience two captivating worlds in one unforgettable journey. Begin in Marrakech, where vibrant souks, palm-lined squares, and ancient architecture reveal the heart of Morocco. Travel into the Atlas Mountains to witness dramatic landscapes, Berber traditions, and sweeping valley views.

Then fly west to Lisbon, a coastal city of tiled façades, pastel hillsides, and soulful Fado rhythms. Explore its historic quarters, riverside viewpoints, and lively cafés before venturing to Sintra, home to colorful palaces and misty forests that feel straight out of a fairy tale. With guided highlights and seamless travel between continents, this tour blends culture, nature, history, and warm hospitality, all in one rich, cross-cultural adventure.

Day 2

Welcome to Marrakech

Arrive in Marrakech, explore the souks and old town on a guided walk, and enjoy a festive welcome dinner with live Moroccan entertainment.

Welcome to Marrakech

Arrive in Marrakech and meet your Tour Manager before heading into the heart of the Red City. Begin your adventure with an introduction walk through the bustling souks and winding alleys of the old town. Hear the sounds of shopkeepers calling out their crafts, see stalls filled with spices, textiles, lanterns, and handmade goods, and feel the lively rhythm that defines one of Morocco's most vibrant cities. Your Tour Manager will help you get oriented while sharing tips and cultural insights.

As evening approaches, gather for a festive welcome dinner in a traditional Moroccan restaurant. Enjoy flavorful dishes, fragrant spices, and lively entertainment featuring belly dancers and local musicians. The atmosphere is warm, colorful, and full of energy—a perfect immersion into Moroccan hospitality. It's an unforgettable first night and an exciting introduction to the culture and traditions that await.

Day 3

Exploring Marrakech

Explore Marrakech with your Tour Manager, visit the Marrakech Museum and a spice–argan cooperative, then enjoy a free afternoon.

Exploring Marrakech

Begin your day with a guided walk through Marrakech led by your Tour Manager, who will help you uncover the city's history, hidden corners, and lively traditions. Visit the Marrakech Museum, where art, architecture, and local craftsmanship come together inside a beautifully restored palace. Continue to a spice and argan oil cooperative for live demonstrations, learning how these Moroccan staples are produced and used in everyday life.

The afternoon is yours to enjoy at leisure. Explore more of the medina, return to your favorite souk stalls, or relax in a café with mint tea. If you're feeling adventurous, choose the optional camel sunset ride for unforgettable views of the desert skyline. In the evening, reunite for a group dinner, sharing stories from the day as you continue experiencing the warmth and flavors of Moroccan hospitality.

Day 4

Atlas Mountains & Berber Life

Trek through the Atlas Mountains, visit a Berber home, enjoy lunch at Kasbah du Toubkal, then explore the village before returning to Marrakech.

Atlas Mountains & Berber Life

Set out for a memorable day in the Atlas Mountains, beginning with a guided trek through serene valleys and traditional Berber villages. Your mountain guide leads you along gentle paths where you can appreciate the scenery and gain insight into rural Moroccan life. A visit to a Berber home offers a glimpse into local traditions and the warm hospitality that defines the region.

After the walk, enjoy a satisfying lunch at the Kasbah du Toubkal, served on its scenic rooftop with sweeping views of the High Atlas. Take time to explore the surrounding village, meet local artisans, or browse for souvenirs before heading back to Marrakech. The evening is yours to enjoy independently—perhaps relax in your hotel, visit a rooftop restaurant, or wander the medina at your own pace as the city glows under the evening sky.

Day 5

Lisbon & Alfama Evenings

Fly to Lisbon, enjoy guided sightseeing, explore the historic Alfama district, and dine together in a traditional setting.

Lisbon & Alfama Evenings

Begin the day with a transfer to Marrakech airport for your flight to Portugal. Upon landing in Lisbon, meet your local expert guide and start exploring Portugal's coastal capital. Enjoy a guided sightseeing tour that introduces you to the city's grand avenues, tiled façades, sweeping viewpoints, and rich maritime heritage. Lisbon's bright light and pastel buildings offer a beautiful contrast to your days in Morocco.

After checking into your centrally located hotel, join your Tour Manager for an introduction walk through Alfama—the city's oldest and most atmospheric district. Wander its narrow lanes, steep stairways, and hidden courtyards as you learn how this historic neighborhood survived centuries of change. In the evening, enjoy your dinner in Alfama. Surrounded by traditional architecture, lively streets, and local flavors, it's the perfect way to begin your Portuguese chapter with warmth, culture, and stunning scenery.

Day 6

Sintra Palaces & Cascais Coast

Visit Sintra's Pena Palace and park, explore Cascais with your Tour Manager, then return to Lisbon for an evening at leisure and dinner.

Sintra Palaces & Cascais Coast

Travel from Lisbon into the lush hills of Sintra, a UNESCO-listed town famous for its fairy-tale palaces. Begin with a guided visit to Pena Palace, perched high above the valley with its vibrant colors, sweeping terraces, and dramatic architecture. Wander the surrounding park, filled with exotic trees, hidden paths, and romantic viewpoints that make Sintra one of Portugal's most magical destinations.

Continue your journey to the coastal town of Cascais, where your Tour Manager leads a short introduction walk. Enjoy free time to explore the marina, browse beachfront shops, or relax by the ocean with a pastel de nata. Return to Lisbon in the evening and gather for a group dinner. Share your favorite moments from Sintra and Cascais as you settle into the lively Lisbon night scene.

Day 7

Farewell Lisbon

Enjoy a free morning in Lisbon before gathering for a farewell Fado dinner performance in the evening.

Farewell Lisbon

Spend your final morning in Lisbon exploring the city at your own pace. With no scheduled activities, you're free to revisit a favorite neighborhood, browse local shops, relax in a riverside café, or wander through one of Lisbon's elegant squares. You might ride the historic tram, sample fresh pastries, or enjoy panoramic views from a miradouro. Whether you choose quiet streets or lively boulevards, Lisbon's charm shines in every corner.

As evening falls, reunite with your group for a special farewell dinner accompanied by an authentic Fado performance. In a traditional restaurant, dine on Portuguese dishes while listening to soulful melodies that have expressed Lisbon's spirit for generations. The heartfelt lyrics and intimate atmosphere create a memorable send-off, offering the perfect way to celebrate your days across Morocco and Portugal. Share stories, toast to new friendships, and enjoy this final taste of Portuguese culture.
