Day 2

Welcome to Prague

Arrive in Prague, explore Old Town on a guided walk, see the Astronomical Clock, and enjoy a welcome dinner.

Welcome to Prague

Welcome to Prague! After meeting your Tour Manager and settling into your hotel, head straight into the heart of the city for an introduction to one of Europe's most enchanting capitals. Explore Prague's Old Town on a guided walking tour, where cobblestone streets, gothic towers, and colorful façades bring centuries of history to life. See the world-famous Astronomical Clock and learn the stories behind the medieval square that has served as the city's gathering place for generations.

In the evening, come together for a welcome dinner that introduces you to Czech flavors and the lively atmosphere of Prague after dark. Share first impressions with your group, enjoy local dishes, and take in the charm of the illuminated streets around you. It's the perfect start to your Central European adventure and a first taste of the rich history that defines Prague.

Day 3

Prague Highlights

Join a guided tour of Prague Castle and Golden Lane, then enjoy a free afternoon to explore Prague.

Prague Highlights

Meet your local expert guide this morning for a deeper look into Prague's rich history and striking architecture. Begin with the sweeping complex of Prague Castle, once home to kings and emperors. Explore courtyards, historic halls, and the beautifully preserved Golden Lane, famous for its tiny houses and centuries of stories. As you walk, your guide reveals the legends, royal intrigues, and cultural influences that shaped the city.

In the afternoon, enjoy free time to explore Prague your way. Wander across Charles Bridge, browse quaint shops, or take in city views from a riverside café. As evening arrives, gather again with your group for a delicious dinner in town. Share your impressions from the day and soak in Prague's magical nighttime atmosphere.

Day 4

Farewell Prague

Enjoy a full free day in Prague for markets, parks, and last-minute exploring before gathering for a group dinner.

Farewell Prague

Today is yours to experience Prague exactly as you wish. Start your morning with a visit to one of the city's lively markets, where fresh pastries, handmade crafts, and local specialties create a colorful atmosphere. Wander through one of Prague's many parks—perhaps Letná or Petřín—where sweeping views and peaceful green spaces offer a relaxing contrast to the historic streets below. With no set schedule, you can choose to revisit favorite sights, explore hidden courtyards, admire street performers, or enjoy a quiet coffee along the river.

In the afternoon, make time for any last-minute souvenir shopping or venture into a district you haven't yet discovered. Prague's blend of winding lanes, elegant squares, and artistic touches ensures you'll find something new around every corner. In the evening, rejoin your group for a warm dinner, sharing stories from your final day in this enchanting city.

Day 5

Český Krumlov & Salzburg

Travel through the magical town of Český Krumlov on your way to Salzburg, where you will join an introductory walking tour.

Český Krumlov & Salzburg

Depart Prague and travel through scenic countryside to Český Krumlov, a remarkably preserved medieval town and a delightful stop on the way to Austria. Enjoy time for lunch and a stroll among its narrow streets, colorful façades, and breathtaking riverside views. The town's gentle pace and historical architecture make it an inviting break in your day's journey.

Continue to Salzburg, where the Alps rise dramatically behind graceful Baroque buildings. Upon arrival, your Tour Manager leads an introduction walk through the Old Town, helping you get acquainted with its charming lanes, lively squares, and cultural landmarks. After the tour, the evening is yours to enjoy freely. Perhaps savor Austrian cuisine in a traditional restaurant, explore riverside pathways, or relax with a drink in a cozy café. Salzburg's refined yet welcoming atmosphere provides a perfect backdrop for your evening at leisure.

Day 6

Salzburg Stories

Discover Salzburg's highlights, see Mozart's house and film locations, enjoy free time or an ice cave excursion, then join a group dinner.

Salzburg Stories

Begin your day with guided sightseeing through Salzburg, a city shaped by music, mountains, and Baroque elegance. Visit Mozart's house and learn about his life in the city where he composed some of his earliest masterpieces. Continue through picturesque streets to see several original filming locations from The Sound of Music, bringing the famous movie moments to life as you explore the charming Old Town. Your Tour Manager will point out additional landmarks and stories that reveal Salzburg's rich cultural history.

After the tour, enjoy free time to shop for local crafts, sip coffee in a traditional café, or wander along the Salzach River. Those seeking adventure may opt to join an excursion to the striking Mountain Ice Cave, where impressive frozen formations create a surreal underground world. In the evening, reunite with the group for dinner, sharing memories from your day in this graceful Alpine city.

Day 7

Eagle's Nest and Innsbruck

Visit Eagle's Nest, continue into Austria, then arrive in Innsbruck for dinner after a day of history and mountain scenery.

Eagle's Nest and Innsbruck

Start your full-day excursion at the Eagle's Nest, a mountaintop structure built for the leadership of the Nazi Party. Ride up through breathtaking alpine scenery and explore the site with context from your Tour Manager, reflecting on its complex wartime history. Views from the summit stretch across the Bavarian Alps, offering a striking contrast to the gravity of the past.

Continue the journey with an entrance to one of the region's traditional salt mines. Walk through underground tunnels, learn about centuries of salt extraction, and experience the cool, echoing chambers that once played a vital role in the local economy. Afterward, travel onward to Innsbruck, nestled between rugged Alpine peaks. Upon arrival, settle in and come together for a hearty dinner. Enjoy Austrian specialties and the warm atmosphere of this mountain city as you prepare for tomorrow's adventures.

Day 8

Top of Innsbruck

Ride the cable car to the mountain peak for Alpine views, then enjoy an afternoon exploring Innsbruck's charming Old Town.

Top of Innsbruck

Begin the day by riding the cable car high above Innsbruck to reach the famous "Top of Innsbruck," where panoramic views stretch across the dramatic Alpine landscape. Take in the crisp mountain air and admire the peaks, valleys, and winding rivers far below—an unforgettable moment that captures the beauty of Austria's Tyrol region.

Return to Innsbruck for an afternoon of exploration. Wander through the colorful Old Town, stop by the Golden Roof, or browse shops selling Tyrolean crafts and sweet pastries. With its blend of medieval charm and mountain scenery, Innsbruck invites relaxed discovery. In the evening, reunite with your group for dinner, enjoying Alpine favorites while sharing your favorite views from the morning.

Day 9

Lake Garda & Venice

Explore Sirmione and its castle, cross Lake Garda by speedboat, and continue to Venice for a group dinner.

Lake Garda and Venice

Begin your day traveling south to the shores of Lake Garda, Italy's largest and most picturesque lake. Arrive in the medieval town of Sirmione, known for its striking peninsula setting and turquoise waters. Enjoy your included entrance to Sirmione Castle, where crenellated towers, sweeping lake views, and impressive stone walls bring centuries of history to life. After exploring the fortress and its charming surroundings, board smaller speedboats and glide across the sparkling lake—a magical way to appreciate its beauty from the water.

Your private bus meets you on the opposite shore to continue the journey toward Venice. As you approach the lagoon region, the scenery begins to shift into winding waterways and island silhouettes. Upon arrival, settle in and gather for a delicious group dinner, savoring your first taste of Venetian cuisine. It's a perfect transition from lakeside charm to the unforgettable magic of Venice.

Day 10

Venice Sightseeing

Guided tour of Venice with entrances to Doge's Palace and St. Mark's Basilica, followed by dinner and a sunset gondola ride.

Venice Sightseeing

Start your day with a guided sightseeing tour of Venice, a city unlike any other. With your expert local guide, dive into the history and stories behind its most iconic landmarks. Step inside Doge's Palace, once the political heart of the Venetian Republic, where grand halls, ornate chambers, and centuries of intrigue come to life. Continue to St. Mark's Basilica, a masterpiece of mosaics and marble, and admire its blend of Byzantine and Venetian artistry.

In the evening, enjoy a group dinner featuring classic Venetian dishes before experiencing one of the city's most unforgettable traditions: a gondola ride at sunset. Glide peacefully through quiet canals as the golden light reflects off the water and the city settles into twilight. It's a magical moment and a perfect way to end your first full day in Venice—surrounded by beauty, history, and the unique charm of the floating city.

Day 11

Murano & Burano

Visit Murano and Burano, then explore Venice's Correr and Archaeological Museums before enjoying a farewell dinner.

Murano & Burano

Begin your day with a half-day excursion to the vibrant islands of Murano and Burano. In Murano, watch skilled artisans demonstrate the traditional craft of glass blowing, a centuries-old art form that has made the island internationally renowned. Continue to Burano, famous for its delicate lacework and brightly painted houses that line narrow canals like a living rainbow. Stroll through its postcard-perfect lanes and capture the charm of these two unique islands.

Return to Venice proper in the afternoon and make the most of your included entrance to the Correr Museum and the National Archaeological Museum. Together, they offer a rich look into Venetian art, culture, and the city's fascinating past—from maritime power to artistic influence. After some time to freshen up at the hotel, gather for your farewell dinner. Celebrate your final night in Venice with good food, great company, and reflections on an unforgettable journey.
